

Rev. Larry L. Cook:

Name	Consulting Specialties / Location	Phone
Rev. Larry L. Cook	Conflict Mediation / Church Health / Church Assessment (Philadelphia, PA)	(215) 816-9999

Rev. Larry L. Cook currently leads the Northeast Office of New Church Specialties. Prior to joining the NCS Team as a Sr. Consultant and Sr. Staff Member, he served as the Senior Pastor of the Immanuel Church of the Nazarene in Lansdale, PA. Under his pastoral leadership, the church has grown from 100 in attendance when he arrived to an average attendance of 400 and over 600 people who now call the Immanuel Church their church home. Larry joined the New Church Specialties staff as a Senior Consultant in April of 2005. He currently serves as a Consultant to the Philadelphia, Metro New York, and Maine Districts of the Church of the Nazarene, as well as serving the northeast region of the United States for NCS in several other denomination and independent churches.

Prior to his calling into pastoral ministry, Larry was Vice President of Human Resources for a multi-billion dollar international corporation. During his corporate career, he was responsible for Human Resources, Labor Relations, Arbitration & Mediation, Executive Development and Strategic Planning. He has been a consultant and seminar leader, as well as working extensively in the mediation and conflict resolution field for both secular and church organizations.

Larry is a graduate of Temple University, with a B.S. Degree in Business Administration and Labor Relations. He is married to his wife, Barbara; they have two grown sons and six grandchildren. Larry and Barbara currently live in the Lansdale, PA area.